

FAMILY PLANNING SERVICE

It is important to plan for the future when thinking about having sex. It's easy to get carried away at the moment but avoiding an unplanned pregnancy and protecting yourself against sexually transmitted infections (STIs) is very important. There is a wide range of contraception available and our friendly staff at MediWell Clinic are here to help you decide which type is right for you. We help you choose the most appropriate type tailored to suit each patient keeping in mind patient wishes and lifestyle. We address any problems with individual choices and offer a solution or alternative as appropriate.
